

No way should the State of Wisconsin's "No Call List" be weakened to satisfy the greed of those companies who constantly interrupt the quality of life and privacy of our families by calling particularly during meal times.